Every label tells a story... Since 1935

1935

It all started back in 1935 when entrepreneur R. Stanton Avery first created the self-adhesive label, an invention that would go on to revolutionise several major markets and industries around the world.

Today Avery UK is a leading manufacturer of self-adhesive labels as well as many more home and office essentials including signage, name badges, indexing dividers, desk accessories, trimmers and guillotines to name but a few.

Things have come a long way since then...

Why Avery ?

Avery® Price Labels - Removable

Easily create your own pricing labels

- A4 printable pricing labels enable you to produce professional price labels without the need of a pricing gun
- Removable adhesive leaves no residue
- Gives you the flexibility to change information on each label
- Design your labels quickly and easily at avery.co.uk/print
- Alternatively Avery hand-writable price labels are an instant solution for labelling merchandise
- The handlebar shape makes them ideal for pricing small items such as rings. The paper strip that encircles your item has no adhesive on it, meaning that your products will not get damaged and no residue will remain when the price label is removed
